COTTON MARKET.

Quotations furnished by W. B. Hibbs & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange, Hibbs

New 1002, Aug. 18.—The late afternoon market for cotton futures was allow. There was nothing in the general run of crop news from Texas to indicate any special change in weather conditions there; there was no buying of importance in any of the cotton markets. On the other hand, there was no development of particularly weak spots at the moment. In short, the market seems to be resting, or awaiting positive developments as to Texas conditions.

sistent followers of the cotton market, have been buying on the belief, based on information received by them, that the cop is a short one.

The local spot market was unchanged and 15.90 for middling uplands, with sales 1,230 bales.

The New York Cotton Exchange will be closed on Saturday, September 3.
